

Trent Davis will be entering the race for County Commissioner, District 4 against incumbent commissioner Natalie Crawford.

Trent is a Habersham native, having been born and raised in Cornelia. He is married to Ashley Dockery Davis and they have one daughter Lorelai. Trent is a graduate of Habersham Central and received a Bachelor of Science from the University of North Georgia with a major in Criminal Justice and a minor in Forensics. After earning his degree, Trent worked for the City of Gainesville and then with the State of Georgia for the State Board of Pardons and Parole. While working for Parole, Trent began to miss the daily interactions he had with the public, and was able to return home to Habersham as a Patrol Officer for the City of Cornelia. While he was with the City of Cornelia, he was promoted to the position of Sergeant. In 2017, Trent ended his career in law enforcement to become a dad. Trent now works for his family at Dockery's Plumbing, Electrical, Heating and Air. He returned to school and has earned degrees in both Heating and Air and Electrical Systems.

Trent prides himself on being a man of integrity, and will do anything for a neighbor. He believes in conservative values and is a God-fearing family man. Trent is an active member of Level Grove Baptist Church where he serves as a family Deacon. In his spare time, he enjoys being outdoors. Trent is a registered USDA farmer and enjoys growing and canning his own fruits and vegetables.

Trent is an advocate of responsible growth and development for Habersham. As part of a family owned and operated business, Trent understands how important small businesses are to our county and way of life. Trent is against raising taxes; and will work to keep our taxes low while providing the necessary services for our county. Habersham County has many challenges before it such as maintaining infrastructure, economic development and managing growth. Trent feels that he can bring fresh new ideas to the table to tackle these issues without placing a burden on the taxpayers of the county.

Trent humbly asks for your vote for Habersham County Commissioner District 4.
