Sheriff's Office operating as usual with added COVID-19 precautions

The men and women of the Hall County Sheriff's Office are dedicated to the protection of all we serve, including the health and safety of our community. The mission continues in full with the Sheriff's Office operating as normal while closely tracking developments related to coronavirus (COVID-19) with local, state and federal officials.

In a proactive move, the Sheriff's Office is taking extra precautions related to COVID-19 at its premises throughout the county.

- On-site visitation with inmates at the Hall County Jail, to include on-property video visitation, is cancelled until further notice. Online video visitation remains available with information at hallcountysheriffsoffice.org.
- Residents are encouraged to limit their visits to Sheriff's Office facilities when possible. This includes the agency headquarters, north and south precincts and the Hall County Courthouse. Phone and email contact information for the agency can be found at hallcountysheriffsoffice.org Certain minor incidents can be reported online through Sheriff to Citizen.
- Sheriff's Office personnel are following CDC recommendations to stop the spread of germs to include increased facility cleaning efforts and disinfection of frequently touched surfaces.

"The men and women of the Sheriff's Office greatly appreciate the diligence of our community as we take these precautionary actions," Sheriff Gerald Couch said. "We have also taken sufficient measures to ensure the safety of our employees by following the CDC guidelines. Although we are mindful and proactive when it comes to coronavirus, our trained and qualified professionals will answer calls for service without disruption."
